Faculty of Medicine Scrapbook

(COLL-005)

Title: Faculty of Medicine Scrapbook Collection

Dates: 1967 - 1979

Extent: 18cm of textual records [595 newspaper articles] -- 25 photographs

Administrative History:

During the formation of the Faculty of Medicine at Memorial of University and the construction of the Health Sciences Centre, numerous publications around Newfoundland and Labrador and across Canada carried news and articles relating to its progress and pitfalls. Dr. Ian Rusted, a key player in the drive to create a medical school in Newfoundland, kept this scrapbook of photographs, newspaper articles and various other textual materials as a way to record the emerging school, its staff, and students. In doing so, he created a wealth of knowledge that traces almost on a daily basis, how Newfoundland and Labrador got its medical school and how the province obtained the Health Sciences Centre. The collection was added to the beginning years of the modern Faculty of Medicine, and the role it played in shaping the provincial and national health care scene.

Custodial history:

The materials found in this collection were stored in a large scrapbook by Dr. Ian Rusted. The scrapbook remained with Dr. Rusted while articles were being collected and added to the scrapbook. The scrapbook was eventually stored in the Kenneth B. Roberts Historical Collection of the Health Sciences Library under the care of Dr. John Crellin, John Clinch Professor of Medical History. It was transferred to the Founders' Archive in October of 1999.

Scope and content:

Fonds consists of material (mostly newspaper articles) relating to the planning, construction, staffing, and administration of the Medical School at Memorial University and the Health Sciences Centre in which it operates. There are photographs of the first staff members and the first medical students to work at the School. Fonds is composed of the following series:

1. Miscellaneous Faculty of Medicine Material, 1968-1978
2. Photographs, 1970-1974
3. Newspaper articles, 1967-1979

Source of title:

Title based on contents of the fonds.

Acquisition:

The Faculty of Medicine Scrapbook was created and maintained by Dr. Ian Rusted who later gave it to the Kenneth B. Roberts Historical Collection. Dr. John Crellin, John Clinch Professor of Medical History and curator of the historical collection, deposited the scrapbook in the Founders' Archive in October of 1999. Work was begun on the Faculty of Medicine Scrapbook in November, 1999, and was completed in December, 1999.

Arrangement:

When the Faculty of Medicine Scrapbook arrived at the Founders' Archive, there was some degree of order present. Although photographs were not identified and were found between pages of the book, newspaper articles were clearly labelled with the names and dates of the papers they appeared in. The articles were added to the scrapbook in chronological order and are arranged as such. In addition, the aesthetic value of the scrapbook itself was retained as much as possible by arranging the articles based on the page from which they came.

Restrictions:

There are no restrictions on access to or use of this collection. However, all materials in this fonds are protected by copyright. It is the responsibility of the researcher to obtain copyright clearance from the copyright holder(s).

Accruals:

Further articles may be added to the article collection in the future.

Finding Aid:

File list is available. (item level)

Notes:

In the accompanying file list, some abbreviations are used for certain publications in which the articles originally appeared. Please see the last page of the file list for explanations of these terms and a list of all publications from which the articles were taken.
