FACULTY OF MEDICINE
Division of BioMedical Sciences
Per-Course Appointment

The Division of BioMedical Sciences invites applications from individuals interested in teaching the following undergraduate Medicine course in Winter 2020.

Subject to budgetary restrictions and sufficient enrolments, appointments will be made on a course by course basis and will not entail any obligation to conduct research or to perform any administrative service for Memorial University. Appointments will be made in accordance with the provisions in the MUN-LUMUN Collective Agreement. Course design and evaluation methods for all courses will be in accordance with the Faculty of Medicine regulations and the Memorial University Calendar.

Course Title: Medicine 310B Human Physiology

Course Schedule: The successful candidate will be expected to deliver a series of lectures (7 one hour sessions between January – April 2020).

Campus Location: St. John’s

Course Description: The course is an undergraduate course offered to 3rd or 4th year undergraduate science students as part of their respective degree requirements. This section of the course deals mainly with cellular physiology, neurophysiology, endocrinology, and thus experience in these particular areas required.
